Contractorwrap[®] packaging

The harvest season is often, if not always, hectic and every minute that you can save is of importance. Therefore Trioplast has developed a packaging for farmers and contractors with high consumption, and for everyone else who wants to save time and work without boxes. We call this packaging Contractorwrap.

The reels are packed directly on the pallet without boxes which increases the efficiency for the user. Take a look at the chart below to see which products are available in our Contractorwrap packaging.

- No handling of empty boxes
- Higher comfort and convenience
- Less impact on the environment

Reliable

With Trioplast as a long-term partner we maintain a clear, open dialogue. Our aim is to work closely with you and in doing so assure your success. We are your reliable supplier; a supplier that delivers on time and maintains the correct quality level. A stable business partner that makes your work and your process more efficient.

Long-term

As a long-term partner, you will benefit from our ongoing improvement programme. The development and refinement of new, ecofriendly materials play a key role. As one of Europe's largest purchasers of polyethylene we have a major responsibility to make efficient use of the earth's resources.

Active

You can go a long way with expertise and experience. But you go even further with the implementation of Trioplast development based on active dialogue. Correct, optimised material selection, efficient warehousing and logistics handling and highly developed technology. These are factors that make your entire business chain more efficient. We are continuously looking for better future solutions.
